This Week's Featured News:

Digital technologies have amplified how we service our customers and partners. Member organizations must pivot their supply chain strategy towards a digitized and automated enterprise – and EFC is here to help support this transformation.

Join EFC's Supply Chain Network and gain insights on the latest developments and trends in digital supply chain practices. Topics range from best practices and emerging technologies to customer expectations, service levels and e-commerce. Contact Swati Vora-Patel at spatel@electrofed.com for more information.
