ENGAGING NETWORK CONNECTIONS

A Recap of Recent Discussions

EFC Networks by Job Function Drive Collaboration, Learning, and Industry Excellence

Electro-Federation Canada's Networks by Job Function continue to bring together professionals across the electrical industry to exchange knowledge, explore emerging trends, and learn from subject matter experts. Meeting several times a year, these networks (HR, Marketing, IT, and Supply Chain) offer members valuable forums to share best practices, benchmark against peers, and stay ahead of developments shaping their functional areas.

Over the past several weeks, three networks convened for engaging sessions, each providing timely insights and practical takeaways for attendees.
